

"Freedom from Surveillance"

H. R. 1185                    Referred to Armed Services Committee
[Yates]

I.         The bill prohibits any member of the Armed Forces or any person employed by them to (or solicit another to):

- (1) collect, distribute, or store any information pertaining to the political, social or religious beliefs, actions or affiliations of any person, or the membership, financing ideology, programs, or objectives of any political, social or religious group within the U.S.;
- (2) attend political meetings, marches, etc., for the purpose of collecting any of the above-listed information;
- (3) maintain files, data banks or other records pertaining to any of the above-listed information;
- (4) examine academic or disciplinary records of any student or former student without written consent of the subject of the records.

II.       Criminal sanctions and standing to bring civil suit are provided for.